Data Privacy Statement

Chichester Marks Holocaust Memorial Day is committed to protecting your privacy and keeping your personal information safe.

When you contact us, make a donation, sign up to our newsletter, volunteer, attend an event, or use our services, we may collect personal information such as your name, contact details, donation information, or any details you choose to give us.

We will only use your information for clear and lawful purposes, including to:

- respond to your enquiries
- provide our charitable services
- process donations and Gift Aid
- keep you updated, where you have agreed to this
- manage volunteers, events and activities
- meet our legal and regulatory duties
- keep people safe where safeguarding responsibilities apply

We will not sell your personal information.

We may share your information with trusted service providers, such as payment processors, email systems, website hosting providers, accountants, auditors, HMRC, or regulators, but only where necessary and with appropriate safeguards.

We keep your information secure and only keep it for as long as we need it.

You have rights under UK data protection law, including the right to ask what information we hold about you, ask us to correct it, delete it in certain circumstances, or object to how we use it.

To ask a question about your data or to exercise your rights, please contact us:

Email: chichestermhmd@gmail.com

If you are unhappy with how we use your information, you can also contact the Information Commissioner's Office ICO at:
